The third State Commercial Convention at Louisville this week was attended by 200 delegates. A number of interesting topics were discussed. One of the best addresses was by Mr. C. M. Hanna of Shelby county, on Agriculture. Mr. S. N. Leonard, of Eddyville, discussed "Kentucky Iron." Col. S. S. Savage was chairman of the convention.

"New Hope for Consumptives" is the title of an important series of papers in the Review of Reviews for June. Mr. Day Allen Willey describes "The Outdoor Treatment of Tuberculosis" as applied in various sanatoria in this country and abroad; Evelyn Mae Hart offers practical suggestions to the consumptive patient under the title "How to Live Out of Doors;" Mr. Francis S. Kinder describes "The Consumptive's Chances in Colorado;" and Mr. Charles H. Johnson gives an account of New York's "Fight Against Tuberculosis." The purpose of these articles is to show what is to be accomplished in public institutions and by private initiative along the lines of modern methods, especially the fresh air cure.

FIRE BY LIGHTNING.

Peacher Mills Struck and Destroyed—Other Damage.

During the heavy rain storm Monday, lightning struck the telephone in the Peacher Mills store. The coal oil tank near by was set afire and in a few moments the entire building was ablaze. The store and its contents were destroyed. The loss is about $4,000; fully insured. The same stroke that hit the store, which came in on a wire, followed the wire to the mill about 150 yards away and set that building on fire also. The flames were extinguished, however, before much damage was done to the mill.

EVERYTHING IN READINESS.

Prospects Flattering for Grand Time at Roaring Springs.

Everything is in readiness for the Old Time Fiddlers' entertainment at Roaring Spring next Monday night and the prospects are very flattering for a great contest. A large number of performers have been invited and the most of them will attend. Secretary Rascoe has a good list of prizes and those who win will be presented with valuable gifts. Performers will be expected to play old time pieces exclusively and there will be playing by quartets, quintets, bands, single hand, etc.

Roaring Spring people never do anything by halves and musicians who participate in this contest will be royally entertained during their stay at that place. The contest will begin promptly at 8 o'clock p. m., and as the program arranged for the occasion is a lengthy one, about two hours will be consumed in rendering same. Several fiddlers of the "old time variety," of this city, will attend.

John T. Goode, Liveryman.

Mr. John T. Goode, the North Main street liveryman, has recently purchased a number of good horses and new vehicles and is now prepared to cater to the commercial men. Give him a call and he will treat you right. His rates are most reasonable and he solicits a share of public favors, promising best service at prices to suit all. See his advertisement which appears in this issue of the Kentuckian.

Dividend No. 1.

The Board of Directors have declared a dividend of four per cent. (4 per cent.) for the six months ending May 30th and the same is payable on demand at the office of the company.

Acme Mills and Elevator Co., J. B. Galbreath, Sec'y and Treas. June 1, 1903.

There is no lack of variety in the "make-up of the June Review of Reviews. Aside from the interesting editorial comment on current events, there are four important illustrated articles on the latest methods of treating consumption, emphasizing the open-air treatment especially: an article on "The Renaissance of Nonconformity in England," by W. T. Stead; a paper apropos of the Wesleyan anniversary, by Dr. J. M. Buckley; a sketch of the late Governor Ramsey, of Minnesota, by Warren Upham; an account of the Government's experiments in "Forest-Making on Barren Lands," by Charles M. Harger; "An American's View of Patagonia;" and briefer articles on "The College of the City of New York and Its New President" and "The Well-Governed District of Columbia." There is also a resume of the report of the Mosely commission of British trade-unionists on American industrial conditions, showing why our manufactures are winning in the race with those of England. The number concludes with an interesting review of "The Oldest Code of Laws in the World,"—those promulgated by Khammurabi, King of Babylon, B. C. 228-2242, and recently translated by C. H. W. Johns.
